

T.E.A.M. Professional Development Seminars

20th Annual

T.E.A.M. Conference and Rendezvous

February 13 & 14, 2009
Northeastern Illinois University
Chicago, Illinois 60625

Theme:

T.E.A.M.'s 20 Year Journey: Creating Communities for peace

T.E.A.M. Conference Brochure and Registration Forms
Available November 1st on line at our website:

www.neiu.edu/~team

e-mail: d-creely@neiu.edu

Please make as many copies of this insert as you need

20TH Annual T.E.A.M. Conference & Rendezvous

February 13 & 14, 2009

T.E.A.M.'s 20 year Journey: Creating Communities for Peace

Two days of dynamic workshops that foster social emotional learning**

Our theme will run through each exciting workshop. There will be over 65 sessions during the conference on Friday and Saturday. Many by nationally recognized award winning speakers.

DYNAMIC WORKSHOPS:

Violence Reduction In schools * Motivational Interviewing * Restorative Practices * Creativity *****
* Bullying Prevention * Positive Youth Development * Peace/Talking Circles for Educators*
*Building Community * Connecting to Nature* Life Savers Program*

INDUSTRY STANDARDS FOR SEASONED VETERANS AND FIRST TIME ATTENDEES:

Teambuilding * Processing and Debriefing * Leadership and Group Dynamics * Rock Climbing**
* Kayaking * Traverse Wall Activities * Crafts * Yoga * Meditation * Juggling ****

Some of the Award Winning Speakers Presenting at the 2009 T.E.A.M. Conference

- Jean Berube: A charismatic and amazing facilitator who was the winner of the 2001 Michael E. Stratton Practitioner's Award from the Association of Experiential Education (A.E.E.)
- Momfeather Erickson: Cherokee elder who received the Kentucky Colonel Award for service to the State of Kentucky, and has been commissioned to sit on the Kentucky Native American Heritage Council. She is also an ambassador for the American Indian Mothers.
- Laurie Frank: A nationally recognized dynamic facilitator and Winner of the 1997 Michael E. Stratton Practitioner's Award from the Association of Experiential Education (A.E.E.). This is her 14th year presenting at T.E.A.M.
- Fred Kaiser: 2007 - 2008 Finalist for National Middle School Physical Education Teacher of the Year. Learn how to change your school culture through leadership and empowering youth.
- Ray Piagentini: 2007- 2008 Illinois School Counselor of the Year and Coordinator of the RIPPLE Project (Reaching Inside Providing Positive Leadership in Education) at Barrington High School, Barrington, Illinois. Ray's specialty is transforming student's lives through service.
- Karl Rohnke: The author of 20 books, he is "The Adventurer" and recognized around the world for Teambuilding and Adventure Programs. This is his 18th year presenting at T.E.A.M.
- Mike Spiller: "Physicians of Phun." Mike will be here the entire weekend sharing his amazing array of ancient games from around the world. Mike makes Indiana Jones look like a choir boy.
- Mike Vondruska: Has taught over 1,000,000 people to juggle, and he can teach you, too!

Visit our website www.neiu.edu/~team for the complete brochure available November 1, 2007

